

Our students from the Bilingual Section came up with some reviews of the play. Here are some examples. These were written by Leo Fernández Arias, Alex García Fernández and Iyán Rodríguez Alonso (CSE Year 1 F):

THE PLAY

The play was incredible!
The actors were amazing, they acted very well.
The interaction with the public was the best and we practice English a lot
I hope we are going to an English trip again.

THE PLAY

In my opinion, it was a very nice play. I laughed very much. I think the idea of people participating in it was incredible. From my perspective, the message that transmits is very important. I liked it. If I can, one day I will see it again. |

Also, they made a summary of its plot. These two were written by Daniel Fernández and Laura Morodo Nava from CSE Year 1 F.

It was the story of a boy who had a hotel and owed money to the treasury, and he participated in the lottery. The first time I didn't get it, because it was hacked. And a lady stayed at the hotel and she was the girl who had hacked the lottery. When she appeared on TV, they paid 1 million pounds for the hotel and the boy realized it and was going to call the police.

With the help of the audience, Harry said that he was not going to call the police. She told him that she would improve the hotel and it would cost a million pounds.

In the end, Harry won the lottery. With the money, he decided to travel to Hawaii.

It was a play that was set in a hotel that didn't have much money. One day, the guy who ran the hotel got a message, they were going to review the hotel to assign the number of stars. In the end, it turned out to be a lie and the reviewer was a girl that the police was looking for.
